Don Superintendent of Census

Dear Sir

Yours of the Nov 9th was received on the 17th I beg leave to explain the omission of which you complain as I endeavored to do it according to my instructions. I did not regard as being important to write the birth in the Column opposite each, as I wrote down
the birth in the Column opposite each, as I wrote
down be at the top & notice down until I came to one born in some other State or County which you will find noted in the same way so that you may be sure that all were born in he undip otherwise stated as I am sure the Schedule will show every foreign born individual. ~~Don't the~~ Elias Beasley & Mary his Wife died after the first of June last leaving Three Children one an infant / without a Name and were connec out of the County which caused me to write Infant they have no property at all or I was informed I have examined the Schedule returned to the Clerks office and send herewith a Memorandum of the same. Which I hope will be Satisfactory

Respectfully
Your obt Servt
